Final Report on the Research Conducted by Kathy Drover for the Provincial Advisory Council on the Status of Women

Author of Finding Aid: Crystal Rose and George French

Date of Finding Aid: 2022

Extent: 0.24 linear meters

Scope and Content:

Contains a photocopy of a 10-page hand-written report written by Kathy Drover as part of a project to determine what information was available in the Corner Brook area concerning the women's movement on the West Coast of Newfoundland. Ms. Drover was granted access to the Folklore and Language Archive and identified collections relevant to women's lives on the West Coast. As part of the project, ten informants were interviewed between July and August of 1988: Sarah Jane Shears, Frances Pye, Katherine Cochrane, Mary Corier, Bernadette Benoit, Sara Benoit, Lillias Hillier, Gertrude Caines, Eva Garreaux Herbert, and Mary Anne Dingwell. The interviews consist of five past-presidents of West Coast Status of Women Councils, and two former coordinators of the Corner Brook Women's Centre. The collection includes audio recordings of the interviews as well as partial transcripts of and notes from the interviews conducted by Ms. Drover.
